About “CV Writing Session: Turning Skills Into Opportunities”

Introduction

The Interact Club of Lalitpur organized a CV Writing Session on 18th August 2026 to help members understand the importance of creating a professional and effective CV. The session featured Rtr. Bipin Parajuli as the guest speaker, who shared valuable guidance on CV preparation and the key elements that should be included in a well-structured CV.

Project Summary

The event began with the Professional Service Director, Itr. Suyog Neupane, welcoming everyone and briefly introducing the session. The floor was then passed to the President, Itr. Dizen Shrestha, who welcomed the members and handed the session over to the guest speaker.

The guest speaker, Rtr. Bipin Parajuli, gave a presentation on CV writing, covering the important elements, proper format, and common mistakes to avoid. The session was interactive, with members actively participating and asking questions.

After the presentation, the speaker guided the members in writing their own CVs, providing practical suggestions and feedback. This made the session more engaging and useful for everyone.
