Date: 28th August, 2026

Location: Basundhara Park, Lakeside

Specified committee: Club

Area of focus: Peace building and conflict prevention

About: 'Tying Threads, Strengthening Bonds'

Introduction:

On the occasion of Rakshya Bandhan, the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail organized "Tying Threads, Strengthening Bonds," a gathering held at Basundhara Park to celebrate the festival together as a club family. The event brought members closer through the traditional exchange of rakhis, reinforcing the values of unity, care, and lasting friendship within the club.

Project Summary:

In celebration of Rakshya Bandhan, club members of the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail came together at Basundhara Park for "Tying Threads, Strengthening Bonds," an event centered around the timeless tradition of tying rakhis. Members gathered in a joyful and warm atmosphere, tying rakhis to one another as a symbol of protection, respect, and the strong bond of friendship shared within the club. Beyond the ritual itself, the event became an opportunity for members to bond outside of regular club activities, engage in light-hearted conversations, and enjoy each other's company amidst the pleasant surroundings of the park. The occasion also served as a reminder of the deeper meaning behind Rakshya Bandhan, extending its spirit of care and commitment beyond family ties to the relationships built within the club. Members actively participated in tying rakhis to one another, embracing the festival as a celebration of solidarity, trust, and belonging among all Interactors. The relaxed, festive setting allowed members to strengthen their interpersonal connections, fostering a greater sense of togetherness and camaraderie within the club.

In conclusion, "Tying Threads, Strengthening Bonds" was a heartfelt celebration that beautifully combined cultural tradition with the spirit of fellowship. By gathering at Basundhara Park to observe Rakshya Bandhan together, the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail reaffirmed the strong bonds of friendship and unity that hold the club together. The event served not only as a cultural celebration but also as a meaningful reminder of the care, trust, and support that members extend to one another, leaving everyone with cherished memories and a renewed sense of belonging within the club.
