About: 'Donation Program to Prime Minister's Relief Fund'

Introduction:

In response to the devastating flood along the Bhote Koshi River in Rasuwa District, which caused heavy loss of life and property, the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail organized a donation drive among its members to contribute to the Prime Minister's Relief Fund. The initiative reflected the club's commitment to standing with affected communities during times of crisis and extending support wherever possible.

Project Summary:

Following the tragic flood in the Bhote Koshi River of Rasuwa District, which left a trail of destruction and displaced many families, the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail took immediate action to mobilize support for the affected communities. Club members came together in a spirit of compassion and solidarity, voluntarily contributing funds to aid relief and rehabilitation efforts. Through collective effort, the club successfully raised a total of NPR 40,000, with members generously pooling their resources to make a meaningful contribution. The collected amount was subsequently donated to the Prime Minister's Relief Fund, a national mechanism dedicated to channeling aid to disaster-affected individuals and communities across the country. This initiative underscored the Interact Club's belief that even small, collective contributions can make a tangible difference in the lives of those impacted by natural calamities. Beyond the monetary contribution, the drive also served to raise awareness among club members about the scale of the disaster and the importance of civic responsibility during times of national need. The seamless coordination among members in collecting and channeling the funds reflected the club's strong sense of unity and its readiness to respond swiftly whenever the community requires support.

In conclusion, the Donation Program to the Prime Minister's Relief Fund stood as a testament to the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail's compassion and civic responsibility in the face of tragedy. By coming together to raise and donate NPR 40,000 for the victims of the Bhote Koshi flood disaster, club members demonstrated that meaningful change often begins with small, united acts of kindness. The initiative not only provided crucial support to those affected by the calamity but also reinforced the club's enduring commitment to service above self, especially in moments when communities need it most.
