About “Flood Relief Initiative”

Introduction:

In response to the flooding in Nepal, the Interact Club of Lalitpur organized a Flood Relief Initiative to support communities affected by the disaster. The initiative involved contributions from both the board members and club members of the Interact Club of Lalitpur.

Board members donated money and essential items, while a club fundraiser was conducted to collect further funds and supplies. Club members also contributed generously by donating essential materials and relief items. A total of NPR 11,580 was collected through the fundraiser and donations. Out of the total amount collected, NPR 11,030 was used to purchase additional relief materials and essential supplies.

Event Summary:

Members of the Interact Club of Lalitpur gathered at Brewbari Café, located near the Hami Nepal Warehouse, where the collected donations and purchased supplies were sorted and organized. The members worked together to arrange the various relief materials before transporting them to the Hami Nepal Warehouse for further distribution to the affected areas.

The collected and purchased relief materials included food and essentials like Chau Chau, biscuits, paracetamol, sanitary pads, diapers, soap, masks, gloves, and blankets, along with other necessary items.

After all the materials were carefully sorted and organized, they were transported to the Hami Nepal Warehouse and handed over to support the ongoing relief efforts. The supplies were then prepared for distribution to the respective flood-affected communities.

Overall, the Flood Relief Initiative provided the Interact Club of Lalitpur with an opportunity to come together and contribute towards supporting communities affected by flooding in Nepal. Through the generous contributions of the board members and club members, essential supplies were collected and additional materials were purchased to support relief efforts.
