Introduction:

On 11th July 2026, members of the Interact Club of Narayani Public School participated in Mud Fest 4.0, organized by the Interact Club of Valmiki at Kalyan Chowk, Rampur, Chitwan. The event was arranged to bring Interactors from different schools together, giving everyone a chance to meet new friends and enjoy a day filled with fun activities.

About "MUD Fest"

Summary:

The program began with a welcome session followed by a brief introduction from the organizing club. After the introduction, all the participants took part in various mud games and group activities. Although everyone became completely covered in mud, the excitement and enthusiasm remained high throughout the event. We laughed together, encouraged one another, and enjoyed every activity as a team. The program also provided an excellent opportunity to interact with students from different schools, helping us build new friendships and strengthen our communication skills. Before the event concluded, we took group photographs to capture the memorable moments, which marked the successful end of a fun-filled and unforgettable day.

Feedback:

Our ZIR, Itr. Dipsan Pokhrel said he had a great time at Mud Fest 4.0. Mud Fest 4.0 was an event..He also said that Mud Fest 4.0 was a place to meet new people from different schools and make new friends. He thanked the organizing club for arranging such an event like Mud Fest 4.0 and all the participating clubs for their active participation. Participants also enjoyed the Mud Fest. They found it both fun and educational, especially appreciating the friendly behavior of the locals who taught them farming techniques in an affable manner. Many expressed that they learned a new life skill and gained deeper respect for agriculture. The local farmers' warm support made the entire experience more meaningful and enjoyable.

Conclusion:

Overall, Mud Fest 4.0 was a successful and memorable fellowship event. It developed the sense of leadership, fellowship and it created a lot of fun with fellow interactors from different clubs. We sincerely thank the Interact Club of Valmiki for their warm welcome and excellent management of the program. We look forward to participating in more fellowship events like this in the future.
