Introduction

In the face of the overwhelming devastation caused by the recent floods across Nepal, the Interact Club of Valmiki in collaboration with Miles plus chitwan ,Interact club of little flower school and Interact Club of Sunrise came together with a singular, driving motto: to stand in solidarity with those who have lost their homes and livelihoods, turning empathy into meaningful action. Driven by this core belief, we organized 'Run to Rebuild'—a charity half-marathon held on 30th August 2026 from 7:00 AM onwards. Designed as a direct response to a national crisis, this initiative sought to raise vital relief funds through registration fees and voluntary donations. More than a physical endurance event, the marathon was conceived as a testament to youth action, proving that when communities unite under a shared humanitarian purpose, every step carries the weight of hope and restoration.

About "Run to Rebuild"

summary

The morning unfolded with remarkable unity as 70 to 80 dedicated Interactors and community members gathered at Rhino Fitness, creating a deeply moving atmosphere of shared resolve. The course guided runners from Rhino Fitness, navigating through the corridors of Aaptari Chowk and Pokhara Bus Park, before circling back to the starting line. Running not for competition, but for the flood-affected families relying on our collective strength, participants transformed every kilometer into a powerful statement of compassion. Through registration fees and generous cash contributions, the event successfully raised total funds of NPR 30,750. Every single rupee collected will be directed entirely toward relief packages, translating the sweat and dedication of our runners into immediate, tangible aid for those suffering in the aftermath of the disaster.

Feedback

The impact of 'Run to Rebuild' echoed strongly among participants, partner clubs, and local supporters. Attendees expressed heartfelt gratitude for the opportunity to turn their personal concern into active relief efforts. Crossing the finish line was described not as a sports achievement, but as a deeply emotional moment of collective accomplishment. The presence of Interactors from diverse clubs underscored the strength of our youth network, leaving everyone inspired by what can be achieved when we run with a shared heart and a clear mission.

Conclusion

'Run to Rebuild' concluded as a profound movement of hope, compassion, and purposeful service. Successfully raising NPR 30,750 and bringing together 70 to 80 young leaders, the event stood as a true reflection of our club's core motto to serve humanity in its moments of greatest need. The Interact Club of Valmiki extends its deepest gratitude to every runner, donor, volunteer, and supporting community member whose devotion gave life to this cause. Your participation reaffirmed that when a community moves together for a higher purpose, single steps can rebuild shattered lives. 'Run to Rebuild' was not just a marathon—it was a run for hope, a run for humanity, and a steadfast commitment toward rebuilding Nepal.
