

OMUN 1.0

Project No.: 1

Date: 7th–8th August, 2026

Avenue: Professional Service

Introduction:

From 7th to 9th August 2026, the Interact Club of Orchid successfully organized “OMUN 1.0.” The three-day Model United Nation conference was designed to provide students with an engaging platform to explore diplomacy, international relations, and global issues while developing essential skills in public speaking, negotiation, critical thinking, and leadership. With three committees and more than 55 enthusiastic participants, the event encouraged young minds to exchange ideas, engage in meaningful debates, understand diverse perspectives, and work collaboratively toward solutions to global challenges.

About “OMUN 1.0”

Summary

OMUN 1.0 began on 7th August 2026 with an opening ceremony, where the Executive Board and organizing team introduced the committee rules, procedures, and agendas to the delegates. Over the three days, participants across three committees engaged in debates, caucuses, negotiations, and resolution drafting on various global issues. Alongside the conference, a Prom Night was also organized, providing participants with an opportunity to relax, socialize, and celebrate their experience. The Executive Board ensured smooth and constructive committee sessions with active participation from more than 55 delegates. The event concluded with the presentation and voting of draft resolutions, followed by a closing ceremony and recognition of outstanding delegates. The organizing team expressed sincere gratitude to all participating institutions, Executive Board members, delegates, volunteers, and supporters for their valuable contribution.
